The Formula for a Successful Expo

Thank you for your interest in our World of Possibilities Expo. We have received an over-whelming response in just a short time. We are confident that exhibitors will experience great success and that attendees will find our Expo extremely meaningful.

WHO WE ARE

A nonprofit 501(c)3 organization with thorough knowledge of and experience in the local disabilities community, we have collaborated with hundreds of local agencies and organizations in MD, DC and VA. Expo proceeds will support families of children with disabilities. Over 50 organizations have signed endorsement forms agreeing to support our Expo, including several national organizations, and many more are signing on all the time.

In addition, the Expo has it's own Advisory Panel composed of leaders in the disability services field. Because we have a vested interest and vast experience in the disabilities community, we understand how to properly serve it.

EXPO MANAGEMENT

The Caring Communities Executive Director is also the publisher of several specialty magazines on the East Coast and has experience successfully running 2000-person showcases for families in Baltimore and the DC area.

TARGETED MARKETING

Marketing of this event will be done locally and nationally. Announcements will be made through Statewide and National disability newsletters, email campaign, thousands of FREE expo passes distributed through local supermarkets, support groups, and websites.

In addition, our marketing plan includes road signs in each area, radio announcements, TV/cable coverage all offering FREE coupons as well as frequent submission of press releases. In addition, both of our Expos will be actively promoted throughout Expo area and surrounding states.
